

NEW K-9 OFFICER BANDIT AT THE TOWN OF NEWBURGH

Town of Newburgh Police Officer Austin Joyce poses with a new K-9 Officer Bandit and supporters at the Town of Newburgh Town Hall.

A new K-9 Officer named Bandit was introduced at the April 14th Town of Newburgh Town Board Meeting. Named after the late Deputy Police Chief Robert DeSaye's hockey team, Bandit has joined the Town of Newburgh Police Department.

The late Deputy Police Chief DeSaye played on the Bandit Hockey Team for years and his hockey team members, family members, and friends were present to meet the new K-9 Officer Bandit and show their support.

Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio and the Town Board welcome new K-9 Officer Bandit to the Town of Newburgh's Police Department.
